THIS WRIT PETITION (CIVIL) HAVING COME UP FOR ADMISSION ON 2/7/2007, THE COURT ON THE SAME DAY DELIVERED THE FOLLOWING:

**- - - -

3 of the agreement enables the University to terminate the service of the party of the first part (the petitioner) if found unsuitable for the efficient performance of duties.

5. It may be true that going by the terms of the agreement, the University could terminate the service of the petitioner. But courtesy, if nothing else, atleast demanded that she was put on notice before her removal from service. Anyhow, in the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case I am of the view that the matter can be closed here itself without relegating the petitioner to the authority concerned for a re-appraisal or reconsideration of the matter.

6. Ext.P5 order shall be treated as a notice and the University shall pay a sum of Rs.6500/- to the petitioner, being one month's remuneration . It is made clear that the above order is passed in the peculiar facts and circumstances of this case. The University shall make the payment within 2 weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment.

Writ Petition is disposed of in the above terms.

A.K. Basheer
Judge.
